Ekaterina Roy

Product designer | 6+ years in B2B SaaS & E-commerce | Built & shipped RunPlan (iOS/watchOS)
Netherlands

Summary

Product designer with 6+ years of experience in B2B SaaS and e-commerce. Designed products that brought 70 new enterprise clients in 5 months and improved conversion in one of the largest e-commerce platforms in Russia. After relocating to Amsterdam, I co-founded RunPlan — a training app for runners, now live on the App Store for iOS and watchOS. I own all product design: research, UX, UI, and iteration. I use AI tools to move faster as a small indie team. Growing RunPlan and open to new product design opportunities.

Experience

Run Plan

Co-Founder & Product Designer — RunPlan
January 2025 - Present (1 year 5 months)
Amsterdam

Co-created a training app for runners as a 2-person indie team.

- Designed end-to-end UX for iOS and watchOS: onboarding, training plan setup, workout tracking, and coaching interface
- Defined product strategy: privacy-first approach (no accounts, no ads, no data collection), personalized training plans from 5K to half marathon
- Built and maintain the product website (runplan.app)
- Use AI tools to prototype, configure analytics, and iterate faster

Independent UX Designer

2022 - 2024 (2 years)
Amsterdam

Relocated to the Netherlands. Completed a professional diploma in UX Design (UX Design Institute, accredited by Glasgow Caledonian University). Took on freelance web design projects alongside studies.

СберКорпус (Корпус Консалтинг СНГ)

May 2020 - January 2022 (1 year 9 months)

St Petersburg City, Russia

EDI platform for B2B, B2C, and B2G sectors, part of Sber Group — Russia's largest financial institution.

- Designed and launched the company's flagship product with the team, bringing 70+ new clients in the first 5 months
- Conducted and participated in usability studies
- Reduced UX debt backlog by redesigning components and adding mobile guidelines to the design system
- Shipped 6 products from concept to release
- Mentored 2 junior designers

Petshop.ru

2 years 1 month

Product designer

January 2019 - May 2020 (1 year 5 months)

St Petersburg City, Russia

Russia's largest online pet store and e-commerce platform.

- Designed the "Autoship" subscription service — a recurring delivery feature for pet products
- Redesigned checkout, cart, navigation, and login, reducing cart abandonment rates
- Created 3 interactive promotional games and designed 10+ promotional campaigns, contributing to an increase in orders

Junior UX/UI designer

May 2018 - January 2019 (9 months)

St Petersburg City, Russia

Designed landing pages, banners, and promotional materials. Supported senior designers in usability improvements.

RuNetSoft

Junior Designer

June 2017 - February 2018 (9 months)

St Petersburg City, Russia

- Created design assets for commercial proposals and client presentations
- Maintained the company's corporate identity guidelines
